Mr. Arthur Eckstein,
Men's League in Aid of Crippled Children,
370 Seventh Avenue,
New York, N. Y.

My dear Mr. Eckstein:

I beg to acknowledge receipt of your letter of March 24th, which I have read with much interest.

Although I have not had the opportunity of personally observing the activities of the Men's League in Aid of Crippled Children, I have heard from many people of the splendid and constructive work which your organization has done during the past twelve years.

In these very difficult days it is particularly necessary that everyone does everything within his power to help his less fortunate neighbors, and the work that you are doing in helping the crippled boys and girls of our city to find a vocation, and in assisting them in their very difficult path, is worthy of support.

I assure you that you have my best wishes for your continued success.

Very sincerely yours,

Herbert H. Lehman

Mr. Arthur Eckstein
Men's League in Aid of Crippled Children
370 Seventh Avenue
New York City

My dear Mr. Eckstein:

It gives me pleasure to commend you and the Men's League in Aid of Crippled Children on the fine work you are doing in behalf of the young people of our City who are handicapped by various physical afflictions.

The preparation of these boys and girls to face the world with courage and hope is an inspiring field of activity, and those engaged in it are deserving of the highest praise and the utmost encouragement.

I wish you and all the young persons brought under your care and guidance every possible success.

Sincerely yours,

Mayor.

Aims, Activities and Accomplishments

THE Men's League in Aid of Crippled Children was founded in 1925 by a group of business and professional men interested in the welfare of orthopedically handicapped children.

Aims and Purposes

1. To provide vocational guidance and funds for maintenance and tuition to orthopedically handicapped individuals desirous of following a professional or semi-professional career, a trade or a vocation with the ultimate goal of making them self-supporting, self-respecting citizens, thereby relieving their families and society of a financial burden.
2. To overcome the prejudice against employing properly trained orthopedically handicapped persons in industry.

Activities

1. Maintenance. Orthopedically handicapped individuals attending high school, college, business or trade school are given financial assistance sufficient to cover the cost of transportation, lunch and personal expenses.
2. Tuition. Tuition fees are paid in whole or part for orthopedically handicapped young people attending colleges, business or trade schools providing the previous scholastic record is satisfactory and the objective is considered suitable.
3. Employment. After education and training is completed assistance is given to locate satisfactory employment through the medium of personal contacts and the League's Bulletin, which is published periodically.
4. Medical Attention. Medical attention is provided only when it is to be followed by general or vocational training.
5. Vocational Guidance. Orthopedically handicapped individuals are given expert advice as to vocational guidance so as to assist them in planning a suitable profession, trade or vocation regardless as to whether or not they require financial assistance.

General Information

1. Any orthopedically handicapped individual between the ages of fifteen and twenty-five, residing in New York City, regardless of race, color or creed, may apply for assistance.
2. Financial assistance for maintenance and tuition is given where economic conditions warrant it and provided there is a reasonable certainty that the orthopedically handicapped individual can be gainfully employed.
3. Vocational guidance is given to any orthopedically handicapped person applying therefor, regardless of his financial situation.
4. The recognized high schools, colleges, trade and business schools are used for the education of those we assist financially.
5. Duplication is avoided as far as possible, by thorough investigation and cooperation with existing Social Welfare Organizations.
6. A bulletin of the League's activities is published at regular intervals and contains a situation wanted column for the benefit of those educated and trained by the League.
7. Officers are elected annually, serving without compensation, except the Secretary to the Vocational Training Committee, who is physically handicapped. The Secretary of Vocational Training Committee conducts investigations, makes contacts, and handles the League's correspondence.
8. The Men's League is supported by membership dues and voluntary contributions and operates under a minimum expense.
9. The League maintains an office at 370 Seventh Avenue. Telephone, PENnsylvania 6-4488.

Accomplishments

Many persons trained by the League are now happily and gainfully employed in industry as pharmacists, watch and jewelry repairers, accountants, bookkeepers, stenographers, dressmakers, milliners, etc.

In most instances the health and mental attitude of the cripple who felt he had little or no future has been benefited by the vocational guidance, general and vocational education provided by the League, which enabled him to become a self-supporting, self-respecting citizen.

My dear Mr. Eckstein:-

I am in receipt of your recent letter outlining the activities of the Men's League in Aid of Crippled Children.

Associations of this character are a substantial aid to the City, especially during these depression times, and have co-ordinated the problems of the municipality in caring for its unfortunate citizens.

I am glad to subscribe this word of encouragement to the work of the organization.

Very sincerely yours,

Joseph V. McKee

April 26, 1933.

Mr. Arthur Eckstein,
Men's League in Aid of Crippled Children,
370 Seventh Avenue,
New York City.

Dear Mr. Eckstein:

It gives me great pleasure to commend your organization on the work which it is doing in behalf of the crippled boys and girls in New York City. I am particularly interested in your organization because of the very practical way in which you attack this problem.

The service to these young people involves not only preparation, but placement. The State, in its program, is intent on seeing that all of these young people who prove themselves capable of working, find suitable employment. It is not enough to feel that we can discharge our responsibilities when we have given them a certain amount of preparation. Unless we feel that our responsibility extends until they are placed, we will not give the same careful and practical thought to that preparation as it requires.

The Rehabilitation Bureau of the State is ready to cooperate with private organizations and appreciates the cooperation of private organizations in bringing about suitable adjustment. Its service is available to all these young people who are able to profit by it. Your organization in cooperating and using this service to avoid duplication of effort, is establishing itself firmly as a part of the whole State program. By so doing, you are eliminating the wasting of those funds which are entrusted to you and are thereby enabled to use your money to do those things which the State cannot do and in this manner, make possible a more complete and satisfactory program of rehabilitation for many of these young people.

I want you to know and I want everybody to know that the Rehabilitation Bureau appreciates the spirit and value of the service being rendered by the Men's League in Aid of Crippled Children. Your organization certainly deserves continued and increased support by the public.

Very sincerely yours,
Frederic G. Elton
